"The committee having the matter directly in charge includes such wellknown names as Charles W. Eliot, President of Harvard University; Willlam Lawrence, Bishop of Massachusetts; Charles Eliot Norton, Lowell's Sterary executor, and Professor of Fine Arts at Harvard; Mrs. Louis Agassiz; and Miss Alice M. Longfellow. Their efforts to date have succeeded in raising, including provisional subscriptions, over $27,000. A generous share of this sum has naturally been contributed in Cambridge and Boston; but it is now clear that final success depends on a more widespread interest and support. It is also desired that this movement in honor of a man so distinguished in the patriotic literature and public service of the country should be as broad and representative as possible, and that every one inter ested should have the privilege of joining. All contributions, therefore, however small, will be heartily wel-

It is intended that the contributions for this Memorial park shall be world wide. Residents of these Islands may send contributions, however small, to Mrs. Oliver P. Emerson, who will recept for the same and forward them to the treasurer.

THE COLUMBIA INJURED.

Struck By a British Steamer Which Sank Immediately.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The United States cruiser Columbia reports that at 7:30 o'clock last night, off Fire Islinto by the British steamer Foscolia. the starboard quarter, just forward of ing a compartment with water. The Foscolia sank almost immediately, but the Columbia succeeded in rescuing all of her crew and landed them at St. George.

The Foscolia was an Iron vessel of 980 tons, net, and 1,536 tons, gross, launched at Low, England, in 1879. Her sailing port is London. She was 252 feet long, 34 feet beam and 22 feet 7 inches deep. She was schooner rigged, had two masts, a double deck, four compound engines and carried

Several hours after the collision the Columbia headed for the Brooklyn navy yard where it is supposed she will be dry docked for repairs.

BAND DANCE.

Music Vendors Give Friends a

Jolly Good Time. at must be a jolly time indeed when one sees Captain Berger, leader of the band that has given Honolulu so much pleasure, dancing about as if he were again in his youthful days. To tell the truth, it was a jolly time that the and boys gave their friends and themselves in the drill shed last night. It was only a dance gotten up on short notice, and yet the hall was filled and the many people who were there were manimous in the assertion that a lized for correcting charts or sailing grand good time was given them. The directions, or in the publication of the hall was very simply decorated for the pilot charts of the North Pacific. occasion. There were no flags or pennants in abundance. The three chandeliers of red, white and blue lights dd the story well. In all there must have been at least 0 people present. The main feature of the evening was of course the dancng. The music for this was furnished by a number of musicians from the and who did not care to dance.

Inquest Held.

The coroner's inquest in the case of the late Emil B. Berger was held at the police station yesterday forenoon. The witnesses called were William Schmidt, Allan Jones and J. W. Harvey.
